Wemyss Malts Release Latest Single Cask Bottlings

Wemyss Malts is delighted to announce the release of their latest single cask malt whiskies. Each cask is a celebration of the unique and contrasting appeals of the different whisky regions. Wemyss whiskies are each identified by their natural taste and aroma and this latest range includes:

- “Smoke Stack” from the Islay whisky region
- “Mocha Spice” from the Highland whisky region
- “Ginger Compote” from the Speyside whisky region

Every cask is rigorously selected by the Wemyss tasting panel, under the watchful eye of industry aficionado Charlie Maclean. The recommended retail prices are between £50 and £90.

Wemyss Malts represents the whisky interests of the Wemyss (pronounced ‘weems’) family from Fife, Scotland. The family’s connection with the whisky industry dates back to the turn of the 19th century when John Haig’s first distillery was built on family land. Even today barley from their estate in Fife is grown for many of Scotland’s leading distilleries.

William Wemyss, Managing Director of Wemyss Malts, commented “Our first 2011 releases include some of our most exciting single casks to date. Together with our small batch blended malt whiskies, the Wemyss Malts collection offers a delicious range of handcrafted malt whiskies.”
