THE BATCH STRENGTH BLENDED MALTS have been selected and blended with extraordinary casks of single malt whiskies from over 10 Scottish distilleries and each utilise defining signature malts from a specific region of Scotland. Our first three BATCH STRENGTH, LIMITED EDITIONS have each been assigned BATCH NO.001

WEMYSS
MALTS

THE HIVE

- COLOUR — Orange Blossom Honey
- CHILL FILTRATION — No
- ALCOHOL BY VOLUME — 54.5%
- CORE MALTS — Speyside, Lowland & Highland
- SIGNATURE MALTS — Fruity and sweet Speyside

NOSE — Juicy orange segments stewed in honey and cinnamon with a helping of saffron custard. Hints of freshly baked brioche buns and ripe stone fruit dance in the periphery.

PALATE — A burst of floral sweetness is followed by opulent orange oil and toasted oats. At high strength a syrupy and waxy quality coats the tongue like cut honeycomb.

FINISH — Effervescent cinder toffee notes dance on the palate dispersing in a clean fresh finish.

MALTS

SPICE KING

COLOUR	Ginger Gold
CHILL FILTRATION	No
ALCOHOL BY VOLUME	56.0%
CORE MALTS	Speyside, Lowland & Highland & Islay
SIGNATURE MALTS	Oily and West coast Island with gentle smoke.

NOSE	Aromatic spices are amplified by the untamed strength releasing cinnamon, nutmeg and anise with a touch of coastal ozone. Heavier notes of Sandalwood and rich pipe tobacco entwine with caramel sauce.
PALATE	Sweet demerara sugar drizzled on carrot cake mix with zesty orange rind and intriguing coastal notes providing a salted caramel like flavour. Gentle spices tickle on the palate intensifying to pink peppercorn.
FINISH	Medium to long finish that jumps from caramel sauce to wood smoke and black pepper.

PEAT CHIMNEY

COLOUR	Gold
CHILL FILTRATION	No
ALCOHOL BY VOLUME	57.0%
CORE MALTS	Speyside, Lowland, Highland & Islay
SIGNATURE MALTS	Heavily peated Islay

NOSE	Brace yourself for ocean waves crashing against coastal cliffs. Marinated scallops, seared by a pungent peat barbeque and seaweed snarled in tarry ropes.
PALATE	Hot smoked meats, paprika and pickled ginger burst onto the palette. A mineralic flintiness weaves through fresh apple and lemon sherbet, balancing the saltier notes whilst intense carbolic smoke grows.
FINISH	Unrelenting sweetened smoke lingers into a very long finish.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS:

WHO ARE WEMYSS VINTAGE MALTS?

Wemyss Vintage Malts are a family run independent bottler of Scotch whisky established in 2005. Utilising years of experience from blending French wine the Wemyss family craft blended Scotch whisky and blended malts from carefully selected stocks. Each of the blended Scottish malt is named from the flavours and aromas that can be found in the whisky. Wemyss Malts also bottle Lord Elcho Blended Scotch, a variety of rare single cask single malts and Darnley's View Gin. In Late 2014 Wemyss Malts opened Kingsbarns Distillery in the Kingdom of Fife which will release a classic lowland malt as of mid-2018.

WHAT IS A BLENDED MALT?

Blended malt is defined by The Scottish Whisky Association as:

“A blend of single malt Scotch whiskies, which have been distilled at more than one distillery”

Our blended malts are carefully crafted combinations of up to 10 single malt whiskies. They can be categorised into 2 key elements:

CORE MALTS – These consist of one more single malt Scottish whiskies combined to create the base of the blend. Support malts can then be added to the blend (usually peaty or heavy in body.)

SIGNATURE MALTS – These consist of one or single malt Scottish whiskies from a specific region of Scotland chosen for their unique character to 'dress' the blend into a distinctive character.

HOW IS THIS DIFFERENT FROM A BLENDED SCOTCH?

Blended Scotch is defined by The Scottish Whisky Association as:

“A blend of one more single malt Scotch whiskies with one or more single grain Scotch whiskies.”

Wemyss Blended Malts do not use any grain whisky only quality single malt Scotch whisky as their ingredients.

WHAT DOES BATCH STRENGTH MEAN?

At Wemyss Vintage Malts we refer to batch strength as the final resting alcohol by volume of a whisky when combining one or more casks together or the final strength once the whisky has been reduced with water.

HOW IS THIS DIFFERENT TO CASK STRENGTH?

Cask strength refers to the natural unreduced strength of a whisky drawn from a single cask of whisky. Most whiskies (both single malt and blended) are a combination of many casks and are commonly reduced from their natural strength.
