Wemyss Malts is an independent bottler owned by the Wemyss family. Their range of blended malts take you on a journey of the whisky making regions of Scotland.

The whiskies are named after their natural tastes and aromas, a tasting note for what you might expect inside.

These are non age statement whiskies, bottled at 46% abv and non chill filtered. The range is also available as a 12 years old expression.

Blend of malt whiskies with a Speyside signature malt.

Nose: Heavy with the scent of floral orange blossom and ripening apples. Palate: A tingling spice dances over the tongue with zesty orange peel and the warmth of a honey toddy. Finish: The citrus juiciness lingers with a whisper of applewood smoke.

Blend of malt whiskies with a signature malt from the Highlands and Islands region.

Nose: Slowly develops revealing succulent stewed plums and raisins and well polished wood. Palate: Hot pepper prickles, spicy orange zest and cinnamon. Leather mingles with damp heather buffeted by coastal sea spray. Finish: As the peppery heat fades, a subtle smokiness is left smouldering.

Blend of malt whiskies with a Islay signature malt.

Nose: Reminiscent of standing on the seashore with wet shells, tangled hemp rope and driftwood. Lime infused saddle soap, leather and creosote. Palate: Warm peat smoke puffs over lemon salted smoked fish. With water, the salty and smoky notes come to the fore. Finish: A sweet smoke slowly sizzles to a softer finale.
